

Revised Authorised Representative Letter

SYNTHETIC POC DATA ONLY - NOT A REAL CUSTOMER, BUSINESS, IDENTITY, GOVERNMENT RECORD, CREDIT RESULT, OR LEGAL DOCUMENT.

Company	Bluegum Vector Demo Pty Ltd
Synthetic business identifier	AU-DEMO-BIZ-1002
Case reference	AUTH-003
Submission version	1
Issue date	2026-09-29
Valid until	2027-09-28
Authorised representative	Liam Chen
Representative role	Office Manager

To: B2B Telecommunications Operations - Prototype

Bluegum Vector Demo Pty Ltd hereby appoints and expressly authorises Liam Chen to act on behalf of the company for the telecommunications permissions stated below.

Explicit authority scope

- 1. Order new telecommunications services, including new service connections, product orders, and associated service requests.
- 2. Approve commercial commitments associated with those services, including quoted charges, service terms, and approved commercial conditions.
- 3. Request and approve service or plan changes, including additions, removals, migrations, upgrades, downgrades, and other authorised service changes.
- 4. Execute and sign telecommunications service agreements and related service-order documentation on behalf of Bluegum Vector Demo Pty Ltd.

Authority confirmation

This authority applies specifically to authorised-representative case AUTH-003. The permissions above are intentional, current, and are not limited to general enquiries or account administration.

For this synthetic POC, this revised letter supersedes the earlier synthetic authority letter that allowed day-to-day enquiries and account administration but did not explicitly grant service-ordering or agreement-signing authority.

Company declaration

The undersigned synthetic company officer confirms that Liam Chen is authorised to exercise all permissions listed above during the validity period of this document.

Signed for and on behalf of the company
